- Go approx. 14 miles, to entrance of Klondike Park
- Follow Klondike Park Loop (bear right), go past lake on your left, then turn left into parking area.

HAKUBA VALLEY, JAPAN: 1/9(SUN) – 1/23 (WED)

Hakuba Valley is a renowned international mountain resort located in the Northern Japanese Alps, known for its vast natural terrain and abundant, high-quality snow. It features ten different ski areas offering diverse experiences, from gentle slopes ideal for beginners to steep runs up to 8,000 feet for advanced skiers. The region gained global recognition as a venue for the 1998 Nagano Winter Olympics and continues to attract winter sports enthusiasts from around the world. Reviews highlight the impressive variety of terrain and reliable snow conditions. Hakuba Valley is a skier's ultimate dream vacation. The area is known for the Snow Monkeys. The valley gets more than 36 feet of snow yearly and has over 135 lifts and 200 runs. Hakuba Valley's extensive network of 10 ski resorts is connected by a comprehensive shuttle bus service included with the trip. Also, Hakuba 47 and Goro are connected to all of Cortina and Norikura. The main resort of Happo-One is particularly popular because it's close to town. It has a fresh above the tree-line and can be windy or icy due to the exposure. On the plus side, this exposure offers wide areas of untracked powder.
